Another day has passed me by
And there's an island in the sun to see me through
Another day in paradise
But there's no reason, there's no rhyme without you
Here comes the night, here comes the dreaming of you
Breathing your love in me
Here comes the night, here comes the feeling I've been
Waiting here for so long, I've been waiting here for so long
There's a time and there's a place
When we can share the silver night, silent room
In my bed an empty space
'Cause there's no other in my life only you
Here comes the night, here comes the dreaming of you
Breathing your love in me
Here comes the night, here comes the feeling I've been
Waiting here for so long, I've been waiting here for so long
Here comes the night, here comes the dreaming of you
Breathing your love in me
Here comes the night, here comes the feeling I've been
Waiting here for so long, I've been waiting here for so long
