

Mr Moon (Remastered)

Mando Diao

Mr. Moon, Mr. Moon maybe your time is coming
Mr. Moon, Mr. Moon what's happening in the room?
We'll search our hearts before you die, let the time fades away
It was given as a promise to each and every man I wanna love you but I'm growing old
Ten little soldiers screaming in my soul
Will she come over when it's time to go?
Come on and show me little drummer boy
No, Mr. Moon, Mr. Moon, Mr. Moon Sad but true, sad but true
You're telling me what to do
I've learned my lesson, that stupid question
Though it hurt my pride But you're a girl, a serious girl
Showing me the world
Oh my love, you're so tired
But you must be quiet I wanna love you but I'm growing old
Ten little soldiers screaming in my soul
Will she come over when it's time to go?
Come on and show me little drummer boy
No, Mr. Moon, Mr. Moon, Mr. Moon Hey
Mr. Moon, Mr. Moon, Mr. Moon I wanna love you but I'm growing old
Ten little soldiers screaming in my soul
Will she come over when it's time to go?
Come on and show me little drummer boy I wanna love you but I'm growing old
Ten little soldiers screaming in my soul
The day is using up it's final breath
I've never been so sure I've never doubted you
Mr. Moon, Mr. Moon, Mr. Moon
