

Time of Silence

Tad Morose

Looking out in nowhere I see a distant gleam of light Faces I've never seen searching in a dream Candles burning down and the light is fading out It's the time of silence that makes me do things right I am living in a dream or is it just what it seems Looking within myself reaching for my sunset sky Running in endless circles heading for that fading light
Haunting shadows all around with grewsome hate in mind They lie, they try they will never bring me down I try, I will break this silence
Voices turned to silence but echoes speak of memories Lying awake and listening wondering who's there for me Standing naked and alone is this for real or dreams within dreams
Time of silence has come it's up to me to make things right Trying to break these chains but then I realise it is inside my mind
I am dealing with my fears but if it's only in my head So why am I having this constant fear
