Sing This Song

At Vance

Do you believe in honesty
You'll have to find your desteny
There may be times when things go wrong
You're gonna win if you are strongSo many boundaries to break
A million tasks you'll have to take
The road that leads you there is long
But in the end you'll be the oneJust raise your voice and singSing this song
THEN You'll be the one
WHO Takes the victory
Take your time
AND Try to hold the line
THEN You will get it allThe years of innocence are gone
You've gotta show where you belong
You know what's wrong and what is right
Just force your goals and hold on tightThere'll be no mountain that's too high
You'll never fail so won't you try
The battle only just begun
And if you win you'll be the oneSo let me hear your voiceSing this song
THEN You'll be the one
WHO Takes the victory
Take your time
AND Try to hold the line
THEN You will get it all
