

Leather Face

Laaz Rockit

Headin for the southlands, down texas way ready for the lightening of the chainsaw blade.(chorus)

Heres your invitation to come join leatherface, its his adiction to keep you face to faceScreaming in the darkness, after nailing you down, swinging the hammer, no one hears a sound(chorus)

Heres your invitation to come join leatherface, its his adiction to keep you face to faceYou're just a prisoner in his game of chance, another rivalry for the devils dance.Come across the crossroads, chainsaw running wild, going to the heavens, for the final time.(chorus)

Heres your invitation to come join leatherface, its his adiction to keep you face to face
