

Au Contraire

They Might Be Giants

David Bowie came to town
Flying overhead
"Don't you dig my chops", he cried
This is what they said Au contraire, Dave
Quite the opposite, in fact
As it happens, au contraire
Au contraire, mon frere Franklin Delano Roosevelt
Knew not what to do
"This tie clashes with my hat", he cried
Don't you think that's true? Au contraire, Delano
Hate to rain on your parade
As it happens, au contraire
Au contraire, mon frere Jodie Foster held two pair
Bach had three of a kind
Gandhi said, "With my full house
I will blow your mind" Au contraire, Mahatma
Hate to contradict you but
As it happens, au contraire
Au contraire, yes, au contraire And au contraire, you square
Wash that notion from your hair
If you're still there, I must declare
Au contraire, mon trs, bon frere Right on, right on, right on
