

Lonely for a While

Jesse Winchester

I guess I took an awful lot for granted
I thought everyone was on the square
    I thought if you give love
    Then you get love in return
    After all, that seems only fair
But you revolutionized my way of thinking
    Now I have a whole new style
    I don't burn with desire
    I don't go near the fire
I think I'll just be lonely for a while
    I see the happy couple in the cafe
    Doing like all happy couples do
    I'd warn them if I could
    But it would do no good
Their world is only big enough for two
So let the lovebirds have their sweet illusions
    It's best if I just walk on by and smile
    I hope their love is real
    I miss the way they feel
But I think I'll just be lonely for a while
    O so much for love
    I'm fine on my own
    How'm I gonna miss
    Something I've never known?
I know, I know you never should say never Cause who knows what tomorrow holds in store
One day love may find out where you're hiding
But you can't find what you're not looking for
    So may I have a table in the corner
    Or anywhere, just nowhere near the aisle
    And yes, it's just myself
    No, there'll be no one else
I think I'll just be lonely for a while
    I hope their love is real
    I miss the way they feel
But I think I'll just be lonely for a while

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.