Orgy

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

You can't escape, what makes you tragic you know
Vicious 'cause you want to be Leaving time possessed to please you, what might have been?
Was never the way you visioned things
So difficult to stop pretending, what's this to you anyway? Turn down the voluptuous
(Ah ah ah)
Keeping close to me again
(Ah ah ah)
Hold back your virtues
(Ah ah ah)
You're fearless in motion
(Ah ah ah) You found your way so why keep asking me?
Nothing common suits you, you live again in solitary
Look away for now, beautiful alone
Now who decides to settle down?
Maybe nobody really cares, what's this to you anyway? Turn down the voluptuous
(Ah ah ah)
Keeping close to me again
(Ah ah ah)
Hold back your virtues
(Ah ah ah)
You're fearless in motion
(Ah ah ah) Something dirty's got you dear
Makes me want to be with you
Something painful's with you dear
Makes me want to be with you You're better off saying nothing
Wish for a happy ending
You're better off saying nothing
Repent so all's forgiven Something dirty's got you dear
Makes me want to be with you
Something painful's with you dear
Makes me want to be with you Something dirty's got you dear

Makes me want to be with you
Something painful's with you dear
Makes me want to be with you
Something dirty's got you dear
(You're better off saying nothing)
Makes me want to be with you
(Wish for a happy ending)
Something painful's with you dear
(You're better off saying nothing)
Makes me want to be with you
(Repent so all's forgiven)
