

The Virus (feat. Dan Smallacombe)

Before I Turn

I don't believe you because everything's a lie. It lingers on you, I can see it in your eyes. You are a poison there's nothing left to say. But let it be warning that you will soon DECAY....

Delusional and designed to fail.

All your beliefs leave your mind so frail. Head so high you can see the clouds. When you learn your purpose you will fall to the ground.....

You are no Messiah you are far too weak, your future home lies beneath your feet. Constant agony, inducing misery, and suffering on the ones you love....

Conduct your militia inside of your head, for there's a thousand army's that want you dead. Shaking on the ground and the last thing you see... All your fans lost for laughing in the face of me.....

(Screams)

Delusion and designed to break. Your mind will quiver and the ground will shake. Heads swing low like a chariot, that brings you nowhere but to a city of only dross and shit.....

You wouldn't know what it's like to stay true. So step off your pedestal for there's no God in you.....

God in you

Choking on your words you start to suffocate.

Living off your last breath it's already to.

Choking on your words you start to suffocate.

Living off your last breath it's already too late.
