Ring a Siren

Nasty_C

[intro]

All the pretty girls stand up
Let me tell you how it all went down
Cizzle, it was [verse 1]
Three o'clock in the afternoon
Coming back from school
You with your friends and they see me, they started acting like a fool
It's funny cause who i wanna attract is you
So I ask if I can walk you, you said yes cool
No need for introductions
You know my name i know yours
What is the key, i gat to use it to get behind those close doors
What you hiding behind ?
What u gat on your mind ?

I said she got pretty lips
She said i gat cute eyes
I said oh thank you
When she was walking she had me smiling till my eyelids close
