SoundProof Room

Elle Varner

(Verse #1):
I try to be strong
Try to turn down the desire Ive been hiding so long
I dont wanna play
The innocent game
Like I dont have animal ways, just like you
I wanna do something we aint suppose to
Its hard to resist
But most of my day is spent dreaming of your kiss
Can you imagine what would happen if we give in to this magnetic attraction?
Baby you should know that if I ever get you alone(Chorus):
Me and you, Me and you, Boy were gonna need a soundproof room
Me and you, Me and you, Boy were gonna need a soundproof room
Wooo (3x), Boy were gonna need a soundproof room(Verse #2):
Im surely a lady
But Im not a stranger to badly behaving sometimes
Crossing the line
Doing what I know is wrong cause it feels so right
Sneaking away for something extracurricular on a lunch break
With that being said, Im ready to try whats been playing inside of my head
Want you to demonstrate your physical advantage, Am I sounding like a savage?
Im not a quitter, I wont give up till I get it, Baby I just gotta have it(Chorus):
Me and you, Me and you, Boy were gonna need a soundproof room
Me and you, Me and you, Boy were gonna need a soundproof room
Wooo (3x), Boy were gonna need a soundproof room(Bridge):
I never usually
Say such crazy things
I cant control myself
What have you done to me?
Or more importantly
What am I gonna do to you?(Chorus)
Me and you, Me and you, (If I get you in a soundproof room)
Me and you, Me and you, (Woo, If I get in you in a soundproof room)(Hey, Yeah, Oh I wanna get you in a soundproof room Oh, I gonna get you in a soundproof Whoa, Im get you in a soundproof room)
