Disappear (Unplugged 2001)

R.E.M.

I dragged my feet across a seat
Jumped out the passenger side
The only thing worth looking for
Is what you find inside
But that had not yet appeared
Lost invisible here
Tel Aviv and Agadir
Taroudant a Olomouc
Before I learned to see
The vanishing point appearsI, I looked for you everywhere
I looked for you everywhereThere is a calm I haven't come to yet
I spent half my life figuring what comes next
I telescoped in, I finally win
I finally win the prize
That, now my eyes see
Comets perfect timing squeeze
Head first fighting everything
The crushing force of memory
Erasing all I've been
The vanishing point appearsI looked for you everywhere
I looked for you everywhere
Tell me why you're here
I came to disappearAah, Aah, Aah, Aah, AahThis face
Can you believe it?
Am I living in the beautiful vacuum?
Because I can't see it
The vanishing point appearsI looked for you everywhere
I looked for you everywhere
Tell me why you're here
I came to disappear
Tell me why you're here
I came to disappear
I came to disappear
