Anywhere You Want

Shannon McArthur

t's a gorgeous night,
everything feels alright
and I got no pain inside, just listenin' to the tide and I feel peace of mind,
took a walk along the battery came to find that life ain't so bad afterall Love is the soothing cure, its always changin' as you mature and its on its way for sure,
just like the medicine oh so pure,
and even if its not there yet, hold on tight It will get to you tonight. It will get to you nowLove, it'll take you anywhere you want to
touch, it is the medicine
that heals you when you're broken in two
it'll take you
anywhere you want,
do you feel my heart
beating down inside?
It makes me feel alivenow summer's on the run just like a thief with all your jewelry stealing all your fun, just like your mamma when she said be home by twelve back in high school but girl i wanna stay out with youLove, it'll take you
anywhere you want,
beating down inside?
It makes me feel alivenow I'm falling in love with all your beauty it's in every little way you move now its my chance to hold you tight baby I know you're in the mood to groove lets to this one time lets do this two times I dont even care

girl, I got so much love to share with you and we'll be dancing till the clock hits two you should know thatLove, it'll take you
it makes me feel alive
love goes on, when your body is gone love goes on
