One Foot Out Of The Door

Kat Deluna

Do you believe in second chances?
So I will be foolish if I did,
Believe it I did!
So you got the nerves to come and ask me,
After all that's been done you're gone and you're stop,
Dry off those tears, get out of my face,
Leave out the puzzles, I know you're faking
But it's too late
Cause, oh, oh, oh!
Guess that when we leaving all be back in a form, baby!
[Chorus:]Because I'm one foot out of the door,
Two strikes and I'm gone,
Let's hope it I'm done!
You got me one foot out the door,
Can't take it no more,
One foot out the door!
I'm standing right foot next to your door, baby, oh yeah!
Cannot be scribing of my love!
I won't be stupid anymore!
You've been treating me good understand, get it right
Cause I'm one foot out the door!
You thought you had me, really sleeping,
I was naive I think you were cheating
When you get surprised how will annoy ya,
The look in your eyes, it reveals your disguise
Would you be surprised how well I know you,
Look at who's walking out of your face!
Was nice to know ya,
Quit the talking, get out of my way,
Cause oh, oh, oh, oh

Lies and deceiving,
Here's your keys, cause I'm off baby!
[Chorus:]Because I'm one foot out of the door,
Two strikes and I'm gone,
Let's hope that I'm done!
You got me one foot out the door,
Can't take it no more,
One foot out the door!

I'm standing right foot next to your door, baby, oh yeah!
Cannot be scribing of my love!
I won't be stupid anymore!
You've been treating me good understand, get it right
Cause I'm one foot out the door!
You fun, you thought, you haven't going on
You never felt I'm gonna turn your back, turn inside
And you see... breathing, I wanna go!
Move your hands, let me go!
[Chorus:]Because I'm one foot out of the door,
Two strikes and I'm gone,
Let's hope that I'm done!
You got me one foot out the door,
Can't take it no more,
One foot out the door!
I'm standing right foot next to your door, baby, oh yeah!
Cannot be scribing of my love!
I won't be stupid anymore!
You've been treating me good understand, get it right
Cause I'm one foot out the door!
