

I Don't Know Why (Radio Edit)

Moony

Never happy, not satisfied

Always complains for nothing

Hopes and dreams are fading awayIt's not hard to figure it out

There's no doubt, you'll find a wayLive the moment, each and everydayI don't know why

I cannot see the beauty in front of me

I cannot

I don't know why

I cannot see the beauty in front of me (in front of me)

(Now I see here, It's always been there

People like their simple things

Live the moment, each and every day

I don't know why

I cannot see the beauty in front of me

I cannot

I don't know why

I cannot see the beauty in front of me (in front of me)

Is it there? Is it right there?

Right in front of you (right in front of you)

This is what you've been looking for

For a long, long time

Make it real, make it right now (make it right now, make it right now)

You've got to live it now

I don't know why

I cannot see the beauty in front of me

I cannot

I don't know why

I cannot see the beauty in front of me (in front of me)
