

Bridges (feat. Chronixx)

Shaggy

[Together:]

I bet you wish you never burned that bridge

(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)

I bet you wish you never burned that bridge

(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)

I bet you wish you never burned that bridge

(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)

I bet you wish you never burned that bridge

(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)[Shaggy:]

Climbing up the ladder you better watch your steps

(Watch how you a flex and watch the moves you make)

Careful of the people you disrespect

(Dem with rosicrucian man nah take no check)

'Cause when you coming down they might not wanna treat you right

And when you coming down that's when you gonna get the fight

And now you're wishing that you were a little more polite

And now the table has turned and everything has come to light[Together:]

I bet you wish you never burned that bridge

(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)

I bet you wish you never burned that bridge

(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)

I bet you wish you never burned that bridge

(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)

I bet you wish you never burned that bridge

(Oh no, 'cause now you'd like to cross it!)[Chronixx:]

It's no coincident the people you meet

You haffi careful how you move in the street

The same man you pass going up when you're coming down,

Him might laugh and a grin him teeth

Grandma say today for you, tomorrow for me

That's when you have to face your real sorrows for real!

I know you're wishing you never burn your bridges

But who can I hear haffi feel

A can't believe you burn it, you burn it, the way you a go walk

When you have to cross the river in a dark

You burn it, you burn all your bridges in the pass

Now your future lead you to the same path, ease - - on!
