

Letter to the Moon

HelenaMaria

I sit alone
It's me against the night
I listen to the sounds and the rhythm in my mind

I've tried it all
I've tried to run
Though I never ever
Could seem to move on

In my pocket was your letter
I never did write back to you
What would I say to you

So I, sent a letter to the moon,
Asking why, I feel so confused
If i'm supposed to leave you
Then tell me why I can not seem to move

I walk along sidewalks, streetlights
I'm dancing like a star on the path I must find
When it all comes undone,
I could never ever carry on

In my pocket was you letter
I never did write back to you
What would I say to you

So I sent a letter to the moon
Asking why I feel so confused,
If i'm supposed to walk away
Then tell why I can not seem to move (Somewhere I belong, back into your arms is where I long to stay)

If the letter never comes back to me
Then i'll know it's its with you...

Ooo-oooohhhh-oooo
Whoa whoa whoa ohhhh

Yeeaaaaahhh

So I sent a letter to the moon
Asking why I feel so confused
If I'm supposed to leave you
Then tell me why I can not seem to move

(I I know it's just no use)
But tonight won't you shine the night with truth
If i'm supposed to walk away
Then tell my why I can not seem to move

(I can not carry on)
