Laura

Bat For Lashes

You say that they've all left you behind
Your heart broke when the party died
Drape your arms around me and softly say
Can we dance upon the tables again?
When your smile is so wide and your heels are so high
You can't cry
Put your glad rags on and let's sing along
To that lonely song
You're the train that crashed my heart
You're the glitter in the dark
Ooh Laura, you're more than a superstar
And in this horror show, I've got to tell you so
Ooh Laura, you're more than a superstar
You say that you're stuck in a pale blue dream
And your tears feel hot on my bedsheets
Drape your arms around me and softly say
Can we dance upon the tables again?

When your smile is so wide and your heels are so high
You can't cry
Put your glad rags on and let's sing along
To that lonely song
You're the train that crashed my heart
You're the glitter in the dark
Ooh Laura, you're more than a superstar
You'll be famous for longer than them
Your name is tattooed on every boy's skin
Ooh Laura, you're more than a superstar
You're the train that crashed my heart
You're the glitter in the dark
Ooh Laura, you're more than a superstar
And in this old horror show
I've got to let you know
Ooh Laura, you're more than a superstar
You're more than a superstar
