Until The End Of The World

10

verse
All the weights that keep me down seem heavier than before,they hit me in my face , though you feel nothing Only time will heal , you say, your words my therapy, but half of me is gone, my dearest treasure torn awaychorus
I'll stick with you until the end of the world, I cry out loud , but you hear nothing.....I'll wait for you until the end of the world , my dearest treasure torn awayversechorus
