

In the Hands of Time

Hardline

Alright, oh yeah
Living every moment, holding on to a dream
Staring at an empty page, winter comes to me
And I wonder will the light ever shine on me
If it's a mountain I must climb then that's the way it must be

Oh, day after day, like a lifetime away I keep holding on Yeah, night after night, out of reach out of sight from it all
Oh, day after day I won't walk away from this dream of mine
Woah yeah, it's in the hands of time

Living every moment with a dream burning bright
Never stop reaching when the dream shines it light
Will I take it for granted when the trying's all said and done
'Cause the pain of remembering plagues the dreams I want

Day after day fight the storm shade of grey and keep holding on
Night after night I'll be your light on your way
Oh day after day I won't walk away from this dream of mine
Woah, yeah, it's in the hands of time

Day after day like a lifetime away I keep holding on
Night after night, I'll be your light on your way
Day after day I won't walk away from this dream of mine
Woah, yeah it's in the hands of time
