Let It Go

Lacey Brown

My feet are worn, from pacing these old floors
Thoughts of you leave me, wanting moreI want to believe, you still think of me
When you roam the other house, you call homeI don't know when, to let it go and let you in.
I don't know when, to let it go and let you in.
To let it go and let you in.You try so hard, always knocking at my door
Just to say you're sorry, and leave once moreNot my own will, but Yours be done
I need strength to hold me here, while you runI don't know when, to let it go and let you in.
I don't know when, to let it go and let you in.I don't know when, to let it go and let you in.
I don't know when, to let it go and let you in.
To let it go and let you in.To let it go and let you in
To let it go and let you inEvery time You say goodbye, I know
I'm gunna see you back at my door, i know
Every time you say goodbye, I chokeI don't know when, to let it go and let you in
I don't know when, to let it go and let you in
To let it go and let you in
To let it go and let you... in.
