Riot, Riot, Upstart

Agnostic Front

Say you got two friends
So tight with them
See them all running
They all want revengeSee them on the street
See them all around
Upset the system
Gonna burn it downTake a swing, fight back
Chances that you take
Knock down, drag out
Stories all the sameStreet fight tonight
What you gonna do?
Someone's always running up
Behind youSee them on the run
With bullets in their hand
See them all fighting
They all want revengeYou want a riot
You want a fight
New York City
Is ours tonightTake a swing, fight back
Chances that you take
Knock down, drag out
Stories all the sameStreet fight tonight
What you gonna do?
Someone's always running up
Behind youYou better get ready
No time to mess around
You better get ready
'Cause there's no backing downYou better get ready
No time to mess around
You better get ready
'Cause there's no backing downThey all want revenge
They all want revenge
They all want revenge
