

Guilty By Suspicion

Donell Jones

Man, what am I say this time?
She already heard the one about staying at work late
I already gave her the script about hanging out with the boys
Guess I messed up this time, I'll face the music I see that you're leaving
After giving you everything in the world
Like a brand new Benz, a laced out crib
A pocket full of dough and your baby got milk Girl why you're trippin'
'Cuz I stayed out late at night
But I locked my keys in my car
After getting off work, didn't think to call If innocent is my plea
Then why can't you trust in me?
You don't wanna know where I've been
The answer to the question could be the end I'm guilty for loving you
And that's all I got to prove
You don't wanna know where I've been
The answer to your questions could be the end So you think I've been cheating, yeah
Even though we've been through this type of shit before
But I told you then, that I changed my ways
Baby, believe me 'cuz I'm not guilty Don't let this tear us apart
'Cuz I don't wanna lose your love
Girl, I promise you it won't happen again
You can trust in me, just don't let this end, girl, I'm innocent If innocent is my plea
Then why can't you trust in me?
You don't wanna know where I've been
The answer to the question could be the end I'm guilty for loving you
And that's all I got to prove
You don't wanna know where I've been
The answer to your questions could be the end Oh yes, said I'm guilty for loving you
And that's all I got to prove
Baby girl, I'm innocent, guilty for trying to change
Baby, don't walk away, girl, I'm innocent Guilty for loving you
And that's all I got to prove
Baby girl, I'm innocent, guilty for trying to change
Baby, don't walk away, girl, I'm innocent If innocent is my plea
Then why can't you trust in me?
You don't wanna know where I've been
The answer to the question could be the end I'm guilty for loving you
And that's all I got to prove
You don't wanna know where I've been

The answer to your questions could be the end
If innocent is my plea
Then why can't you trust in me?
You don't wanna know where I've been
The answer to the question could be the end
I'm guilty for loving you
And that's all I got to prove
Don't you wanna know where I've been?
The answer to your questions could be the end
If innocent is my plea
Then why can't you trust in me
You don't wanna know where I've been
The answer to the question could be the end
