

Hearts and Flowers

Craig Riley

Hearts and flowers
A picture of what a love should be
But when it comes
It's deeper than
The darkest sea Sometimes, I'm so alone
Even in your arms
Like each of us
Keeps a little wall
Inside our hearts Hearts and flowers
Those people that
Make up valentines
Forget the flesh and blood of love
Like yours and mine Sometimes, I'm so alone
Even in your arms
Like each of us
Keeps a little wall
Inside our hearts Hearts and flowers
A candy coated fantasy
But in your soul
I've found the one
My soul can see Sometimes, I'm so alone
Even in your arms
Like each of us
Keeps a little wall
Inside our hearts Like each of us
Keeps a little wall
Inside our hearts
Inside our hearts
