You Caught Me At a Bad Time

Toby Keith

I don't need this conversation
'Cause I don't need to see you cry
You need one more confirmation
Like I need one more reason whyI know this might not be the answer
Oh, that you came here to get
We both know that girl is somethin'
That I'm still not over yetI can't go on using you
Girl, it feels like I'm losin' you
A love like yours is hard to find
But you caught be at a bad timeI knew that you'd be waiting
The night I made that desperate call
You weren't everything I needed
Just the softest place to fallSo I'm not gonna lie to you
Just keep stringing you along
Thought by now that I'd be better
But I guess I'm not that strongAnd I can't go on using you
Oh, it feels like I'm losin' you
A love like yours is hard to find
You've caught me at a bad timeA love like yours is hard to find
You've caught me at a bad time
