

Invincible

Icon for Hire

I am, I'm invincible
I am, I'm invincible
You ain't seen nothing yet In the dark, in the mess
All my life, I have been
Folded up, holding back
Don't know how, we live like that
From the flame, I emerge
With the strength, I have earned I belong to the night
But I learned to survive
I know I gotta fight the feeling inside
I am, I'm invincible
Uh uh, unkillable
I am, I'm invincible
You ain't seen nothing yet You ain't seen nothing yet
You ain't seen nothing yet When the dark, comes for me
I won't run, I will scream
I'm stronger than I used to be oh I belong to the night
But I learned to survive
I know I gotta fight the feeling inside I am, I'm invincible
Uh uh, unkillable
I am, I'm invincible
You ain't seen nothing yet
You ain't seen nothing yet
You ain't seen nothing yet I don't throw out nice words
Make me feel better about
What I been dodge
You better believe
I am not that naive
You cut me up yeah
You bet I'll bleed
So invincible maybe not quite you
I keep saying it to it gets through
Till I start acting like I can do
Whatever the heck I put my mind too
You live like you're invisible
Don't you wanna be invincible I am, I'm invincible
Uh uh, unkillable
I am, I'm invincible
You ain't seen nothing yet
