

White Shades

Blume

Lies to dry your eyes
You've never spent a word
We haven't said it all
Eyes can't hide your lies
You've never spent a word
To get in touch with me
I want to dive deep into myself
I dream of white shades
In dark light
Remaining of the day
I dream of white shades
In dark light
Remaining of the day
Lies to dry your eyes
You've never spent a word
We haven't said it all
Eyes can't hide your lies
You've never spent a word
To get in touch with me
I want to dive deep into myself
I dream of white shades
In dark light
Remaining of the day
I dream of white shades
In dark light
Remaining of the day
