

Raising Hell

Bullet for My Valentine

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I feel the fire
Can't touch the flames
This is reality, an infamous game
I taste the blood
Can't seem to cave
The deed is done, but the debt isn't paid
Everyday seems like I'm running from the reaper
Kicking and screaming, I'm going down swinging
Without my soul your a gun without a trigger.
Fate is unfolding, who made you the king of the dead?
This is a war
That can never be won
Let me go!
I'll fight forever as the heavens fall.
I'm raising hell!
This is a war
That can never be won
Let me go!
I'll fight forever as the heavens fall.
I'm raising hell!
Raising Hell!
You got a choice, you digress off your master?!
No restraints, no remorse
Are you hearing this?
You want to test me?
I know, I'll Destroy you!
Save your breath, nothing's left
Here I come at you!
Everyday seems like I'm running with the reaper
Kicking and screaming, the demons are singing
Disarray as the grave is getting deeper
Weakness is showing, I'll make you a slave for the dead
Slave for the dead
This is a war
That can never be won
Let me go!
I'll fight forever as the heavens fall.
I'm raising hell!
This is a war

That can never be won
Let me go!
I'll fight forever as the heavens fall.
I'm raising hell! Raising Hell! This is a war
That can never be won
Let me go!
I'll fight forever as the heavens fall.
I'm raising hell! This is a war
That can never be won
Let me go!
I'll fight forever as the heavens fall.
I'm raising hell! This is a war
That can never be won
Let me go!
I'll fight forever as the heavens fall.
I'm raising hell! This is a war
That can never be won
Let me go!
I'll fight forever as the heavens fall.
I'm raising hell!
