Awake

Onesidezero

So sorry, whisper all night
I lay here deep in silent night
My head consumes the light
Too much thought, my life's evolvingI wish that I could buy
Another world that's so grown up
Inherit sleepless cries
I'd rather kill the torment
Kill the tormentSay, it's alright
Can't, I won't move
I'm always awake
Should, this time
You, forgive me
Surrender, awakeYou've seen the worst of my dreams
I can't escape this endless breach
Holding on so tight
Writing lovers, stories hopelessSo place on my eyes, the sins of my life
Can we see the hands above her
See the hands above herSay, it's alright
Can't, I won't move
I'm always awake
Should, this time
You, forgive me
Surrender, awake
AwakeSay, it's alright
Can't, I won't move
I'm always awake
Should, this time
You, forgive me
Surrender, awakeSay, it's alright
Can't, I won't move
I'm always awake
Should, this time
You, forgive me
You're always awake
