There At the Top

Squeeze

She's independent, she's a modern woman
She needs no prompting on her should and shouldn't It's always bosses, who wish that she wouldn'tFiles in the cabinet, so neatly numerical
Makes all the clients so neatly alphabetical(Turn of 21)
She's looking at the map
(Looking at the map)
Then looking at her watch
(Looking at her watch)
Bags on the rack
(Bags on the rack)Seems like she's there
Seems like she's there at the top
Seems like she's there at the topThere for her service, comfy red Granada
Up to the midlands with a taped Sinatra
Plans all the hotels and the airplane chartersFound under covers with some representative
The deal is effected but still only tentative(Turn of 21)
(Looking at the map)
Then looking at her watch
(Looking at her watch)
Bags on the rack
(Bags on the rack)Seems like she's there
Seems like she's there at the top
Seems like she's there at the topShorthands a letter heading on the paper
Slim lines her lunch break will it ever make her?
Slender and modern so all the men will take herBack to the mirror in the Empress Hotel
Where the businessman smiles and the object to sell(Turn of 21)
(Looking at the map)
Then looking at her watch
(Looking at her watch)
Bags on the rack
(Bags on the rack)Seems like she's there
Seems like she's there at the top
Seems like she's there at the topThere at the top, there at the top
There at the top, there at the top
There at the top, there at the top
