Happiness

The Elms

We're so in love with fighting
That we're blocking out the lighting of the sun
There's no one left to lead us
We're a nation of retreaters, every oneI won't be afraid
I won't be afraidShow me the light that You promised
Happiness comes through despair
Make it so bright
You kill the darkness everywhereYou've given me a reason
And You're surely gonna see me if I run
And when I wanna quit it
Well You won't let me forget it 'till it's doneI won't be afraid
I won't be afraidShow me the light that You promised
Happiness comes through despair
Make it so bright
You kill the darkness everywhereNow that I've found my tune, help me to sing it through
And not be drawn away
And if I should be let down by one of those standing 'round
I will not turn awayI won't be afraid
I won't be afraidShow me the light that You promised
Happiness comes through despair
Make it so bright
You kill the darkness everywhereShow me the light that You promised
Happiness comes through despair
Make it so bright
You kill the darkness everywhere

Songwriters
Owen Matthew ThomasPublished by BIRDWING MUSIC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/