The Devil's In Your Details

Matthew Good

Sunshine, don't you mind them
Lie for me now, smile for me now
Sometimes my feet don't touch the ground
When you come around
The Devil's in your details
The Devil's in your details
In your details

My feet don't touch the ground
When you come around
Lie for me now, smile for me now
The Devil's in your details
The Devil's in your details
