

To Die For

Aaron Kamm

Get up its a minute to midnight
And we've got, the whole world coming after us
 So we're running and running, Oh, and your eyes are the colour of wanting
 And my heart is a runaway
 And our hands seducing them to coincide
 And there's something about you
 And there's something that you see
 We both lay, here broken
 Cause we both know that this can't be
 And it cuts like a gun
 The poison in battle
 Sinking straight to the blood
 And it awakens your dreams
 And kills all the demons
 that you thought wouldn't leave
 Cause this is love to die from
 And to die for
 Could this be, oh dare I say it
 Oh this could be,
 This could be love I've been waiting for This could be love I've been asking for
 From the stars to the gravel
 That we used to light up shadows
 From the slits it was finger
 Pricking once in my fingertips

 Passion for glory
 Impossible in this story
 And there's something about you
 And there's something that you see
 We both lay, here broken
 Cause we both know that this can't be
 And it cuts like a gun
 The poison in battle
 Sinking straight to the blood
 And it awakens your dreams
 And kills all the demons
 that you thought wouldn't leave

Cause this is love to die from
And to die for
So if the world comes tumbling in
I will be there with you
And if the devil comes to town
I'll be there to protect you
And it cuts like a gun
The poison in battle
Sinking straight to the blood
And it awakens your dreams
And kills all the demons
that you thought wouldn't leave
Cause this is love to die from
And to die for
I'd die for, you.
