Goodbye

Shanti

i can see you've got a bad reputation daddy's leaving and there's no communication what do you think you're trying to do to me leaving me without kissing me goodbye, goodbye i was weak and you pulled me in you're little reality sucked me in i'm drowning now and I can't see why your leavin' me without kissing me goodbye, goodbye maybe we'll meet again another life, another day maybe i'll dream again of better lives with better days or maybe you'll change your mind and stay but you're leaving me without kissing me yeah your leaving me without kissing me goodbye, goodbye now i see the games we used to play i had you locked into a cage i made and i tried to hold on but now you're leaving me and i'm kissing you goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, goodbye 'cause you're leaving me without kissing me (x3) goodbye
