Everything Dies

Type O Negative

Well I loved my aunt, but she died

And my uncle Lou, then he diedI'm searchin' for somethin' which can't be found, but I'm hopin' I still dream of dad, though he diedEverything dies, everything diesMy Ma's so sick, she might die Though my girl's quite fit, she will dieStill lookin' for someone who was around, barely coping Now I hate myself, wish I'd dieEverything dies, everything dies

Everything dies, everythingNo why? Oh God, I miss you No why? Oh God, I miss you, I really miss you

No, no, no, no

No why? Oh God, I miss you
No why? Oh God, I miss you, I really miss youEverything dies, everything dies
Everything dies, everything

No, no, no, no Everything dies, everything dies Everything
