

Self-Saboteur (Featuring Kristy Thirsk)

Delerium

No one wins at this game
Throwing knives in your pain
And even though you're lying down now
You're fighting in a war zone
Between the world and your brain You hide your pride
Why can't you see
Can't you see, can't you see
You are your own worst enemy You are what you despise
Blame is only a compromise
Anger is your bow and arrow
It's better than a shield for your sorrow
But nothing's hurting inside You hide your pride
Why can't you see
Can't you see, can't you see
You are your own worst enemy All the good things you have Always end up with someone else
And you blame that they are stealing
All the big plans you made
Will explode and you'll suffocate
From the anger you are feeling You hide your pride
Why can't you see
Can't you see, can't you see
You are your own worst enemy You hide your pride
Why can't you see
Can't you see, can't you see
You are your own worst enemy You hide your pride
You are your own worst enemy
You hide your pride
You are your own worst enemy
