

Overthrow ('89 Version)

The Samples

there's no time
there's no more places for us to run away and leave all these spaces I know you know
that we know we're gonna have an overthrow everyone with a deep-seated need to find their part to make them see and I know if you know we know
we're gonna have an overthrow there's no book
'cause there's no directions
'cause no one overtook, no chance at liberation but I know that you know
that we know
we're gonna have an overthrow
