I'll begin by talkingAbout something that puzzles me
Things like jewellery
And ice statues
Fragile works of art
You cannot
Touch them
Gaze at them longingly
From a distanceToday I'm just
Wearing a baby doll

Doing nothing
Vegetating in my bedIn the afternoon
Wearing my brand-new suit
I'll go window-shopping
To kill some timeAt night
Wearing a black gown
I'm invited to dinner
Please call me madameAccording to the tarot cards
The beautiful girl
Lives in a sea of tears
And the fool won't stop
Giving away money
Just like a broken tapIn the morning
Wearing my fur coat
I'll get back to the hotel
In the car you're so proud ofSomeday
Wearing a white dress
I'll have my wedding ceremony
You too please come
