Man From Another Time

Seasick Steve

I lost a woman
I believe to be perfect for me
You could replace her
But you're so much younger than meOur lives are so different
Our music is not the same kind
It's like we're just out of focus
With no way to bring us in lineI'm like a man from another time
I'm old fashion music, I'm old fashion wine
Pilgrim like Jesus with no way to find
I'm like a man from another timeI may be a reincarnated
From a soldier who died in some war
With our thirty year difference
It's like I was born in some lifetime beforeI'm old fashion music, I'm old fashion wine
I'm like a man from another timeMaybe reincarnated
From a soldier who died in some war
With our thirty year difference
I'm like born in some lifetime beforeI'm old fashion music, I'm old fashion wine
I'm like a man from another time
I'm like a man from another time
