Vibrate

Rufus Wainwright

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

My phone's on vibrate for you
Electroclash is karaoke to
I tried to dance to Britney Spears
I guess I'm getting on in yearsMy phone's on vibrate for you
God knows what all these new drugs do
I guess to have no more fears
But still I always end up in tearsMy phone's on vibrate for you
But still I never ever feel from you
Pinocchio's now a boy who wants to turn
Back into a toy
So call me, call me in the morning
Call me in the night, so call me
Call me anytime you like
My phone's on vibrate for you, for you
