

Over and Out

Foo Fighters

Restless little one
Comfortable and warm
Let me fall apart
Crippled in your arms Chase me through the dark ready on your mark
First to reach the stars wins a broken heart
One that broke apart, shattered from the start Are you there?
Do you read me?
Are you there?
I don't feel you anymore Cages and alarms
Keeping us from harm
I will be the guard
Hope to rest upon Could I be the one to break a will so strong
Pray it won't be long 'til your will is gone
Everything is done, nothing left at all Are you there?
Do you read me?
Are you there?
I don't feel you anymore Are you there?
Will you give in?
Are you there?
If I give out, over and out Cages and alarms keeping us from harm
I will be the guard hope to rest upon
Everything is done, nothing left at all Are you there?
Do you read me?
Are you there?
I don't feel you anymore Are you there?
Will you give in?
Are you there?
If I give out
