Beautiful As Fire

Raise Hell

Tears of blood - from your fallen domination
Tears of blood - see your creation burn down
Churches and crosses destroyed by fire
Fire that one day will embrace the earth
Crying and begging for help from your god
Your god does not exist!Religious demise, extinction of lies
When you burn on the cross as my servant
I can't describe the sight I saw, the sight of mighty fire
No thing is more beautiful than fireFirestorms embrace the holy earth
Christ burn! Make my deed complete
Heaven lost, this battle we have won
We have won!Fire glow into his blessed creation
Make them blind by your beauty
Blind by the lightHeaven burn, ashes to the ground
The cross of Christ deniedChurches and crosses destroyed by fire
Fire that one day will embrace the earth
Crying and begging for help from your god
Your god does not exist!
