

Bellona

Junior Boys

These days are getting longer
This song is gonna be so loud
You know one thing you told me?
You have a new name now (This time I'll stay for good) We'll do that flash gold
It burned my shadow gray
Where have those far days got to now? I saw him in the part-shade
He put his hands down low
What else did I see?
What else did they show?
You think it's so unlike me
Why did the city change me?
Red sky, my eyes closed
The fire came so slow
