enshadow

moonlight awakening

[Vlastyn]Take to the ends of humanity wishing for reprieve
Take from me your atrocity, turn around and leave
For the world is wrong I found out
For the hope that's lost I wound upIn shadows of spirit, cause my life is gone
I don't need your healing, cause everything is wrongPray and tell your cause, I'm fighting your frustration
You know it's your own loss, I hope for desolation
For the world is wrong, I found out
Now that I don't care I've wound upIn shadows of spirit, cause my life is gone
I don't need your healing, cause everything is wrongThe border's crossed and I am done
You must take everything, you've won
I'm just another face like yours
So take my soul and make me pure
I'm mindless just like all the rest
Forsaken everything, I'm blessed
I must repent for it's your will I'm one of you now that I'm killed..... It lifts me from the edge, You've stolen me again, and made meEnshadowed by spirit, cause my life is wrong
I'm taken by your healing and everything is gone
