

Shame

Racey

Shame you ran away from me
Shame for two timing on me
Shame you started fooling around
I said: woh woh
woh woh woh woh oh.

I said you

you never held it right

You got it all wrong and we started to fight

You

you put the blame on me
I said: woh woh woh woh woh woh woh oh.
She was a first class ticket to ride

Went off the rails love started to slide.

Slippin' and a slidin' all over the track

Pushed me to the limit

now she can't go back.

No

I won't take no more

I got your hat and I'll show you to the door.

You better leave cause I can't take no more
I said: woh woh woh woh woh woh woh oh.

I said you

you never held it right

Got it all wrong but you think you got it right
You are all trouble and woe

I said: woh woh woh woh woh woh oh.
Sweet little raver had a ticket to ride

Took me on a half way I was burning inside.

She should touch me like no one else can
This sweet little raver hit me right in the hand.

Shame it had to happen this way
Shame for all the things you had to say Shame for letting me go
I said: woh woh
woh woh woh woh woh oh.

Shame you ran away from me
Shame for two timing on me
Shame you started fooling around
I said: woh woh
woh woh woh woh woh oh.

I said: you

you never handled it right

You got it all wrong and we started fo fight.

You

I said: woh woh woh woh woh woh woh oh.
I said you

you never handled it right
