Falling Rain

Alexandre Desplat

I should have seen it coming I could tell by the look in your eyes one step and you were gone but something higher kept me golding on feel the storm is gaining you left me dry but now it's raining girl I'm down on bended knee our love was me to be it ain't no game when love is down in the falling rain the town ain't the same there's no more houses to lean on and sunshine is gone

I should have known much better I was stranded in the eye of the storm rescued by your words so warm fought so hard to keep it hanging on clear blue skies are fading there's nothing left it's just me waiting still I'll make it back to you it won't be long till I do

Lyrics submitted by Chimi Htf.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/