Pull over Now

Jim and Sam

Just a horse that you bet
A road that you take
A love that you want
You're too tired to make

Saying, lover come on
Don't let me down
Is the alcohol working now

If it's the first time
I'm ever speaking up
I guess it's my fault

Pull over now, I wanna get off
All trashed in tears let the witnesses watch
Pull over now, and make me believe
That we can change it, change it, change it
Change it, change it, change it

Take the barbwire fence
Build a prison somewhere
For the lies that you and I've made,

Cause listen, I don't care
We're as sad it gets,
Not as mean as we are, are

Pull over now, I wanna get off
All trashed in tears let the witnesses watch
Pull over now, and make me believe
That we can change it, change it, change it

Ooo, o-ooo, o-ooo, o-ooo
Ooo, o-ooo, o-ooo, o-ooo

You struck a match I light the flame
I'd die for you
Falling on my weak and willing knees to the ground
Hands to my chest you show me how

The rumbling in my heart goes pound for pound

O-ooo,

â™« My body, my bones, you got me by the spine

My body, my bones
Head to my heart to my waist to my thighs

Ooo, o-ooo, o-ooo, o-ooo
Ooo, o-ooo, o-ooo, o-ooo

I used to jump falling off trains
I never stay
Long enough for them to know my
Name's on a grave tattooed in time
You show me how
The rumble in my heart goes pound for pound

My body, my bones
Head to my heart to my waist to my thighs

I was helpless
Helpless
I was helpless
Helpless
I was helpless
Singing in your choir
Helpless
Dancing to the beat
Helpless

Banging on your fire

Burn, burn, burn

Ooo, o-ooo, o-ooo, o-ooo

My body, my bones
You got me by the spine
My body, my bones
Head to my heart to my waist to my thighs
