My Darkness

Destroy the Runner

I see those hands
You see those hearts
Some are slow to believe
Give me rest from this world
It's going to kill me
Inside I'm falling apart, what will save me?
I never knew I was so dead until I met you
It's almost over
Dry these tears from my eyes
Breathe in me a new beginning
Never let this love fade away
It's almost over
This is the only thing we're fighting for
We're gonna make it through the night
When all the hope we had is dead and gone
The only way to remain strong
I will never look back
Give me rest from this world
I never knew I was so dead until I met you
Give me rest from this world
Set me free from my darkness
