Allegiance (Live 2012)

Firewind

They feed you lies and bring you pain
Your life sucked from your veins
Clever disguise falling from grace
And now the sins are marching onInside my mind
All I've got
I'm taking over meSee our generation storm the burning heart
No more places in the hull
We're all about to fall
Empty memories are shattering our dreams
Can you recall?Pledge your allegiance
Pledge your allegianceYou hate them yet you won't retain
The wars you fight and endorse
The path of no return you take
Until you lose controlInside my mind
All I've got
I'm taking over meSee our generation storm the burning heart
No more places in the hull
We're all about to fall
Empty memories are shattering our dreams
Can you recall?See our generation storm the burning heart
No more places in the hull
We're all about to fall
Empty memories are shattering our dreams
Can you recall?See our generation storm the burning heart
No more places in the hull
We're all about to fall
Empty memories are shattering our dreams
Can you recall?
