

Calculating Bimbo

Belle and Sebastian

A lack of understanding
You took for being lazy
I was just being lazy
I'm even doing it now I know that you have saved me
I love that you have saved me Save your pennies careful
Let both blue eyes be watchful
It's best to forget freedom
It's best to be enslaved It's better still to love first
It's harder still to love first You're my winter queen that disappeared
Your hands grew cold
You ran a mile from my wings
I still heard you had a full flown view With lots of time
And notebook full of the finest, creamy, rich girl parchment pages
Slowly filled with all your passing days
Every sacred word paints a picture Bigger were his muscles
Send farther go his dollars
But when you are in trouble
And when you are uptight I get the midnight phone call
I'm your captain for the long haul If someone else is near me
You scuttle up the pavement
It's no one that I care for
I pause for an effect You calculating bimbo
I wish you'd let the past go

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>